

ANARCHISTIC ECHOES.

SPIES' PROXY WIDOW WRITES A SCATHING LETTER.

The Censures the Court, Lawyers, Merchants and Everyone Connected With the Trial—Did Engel Leave Two Widows?—Guarding the Graves of the Dead.

New York, Nov. 17.—In response to a letter from Mr. Lazarus, of this city, Miss Nina Van Zandt replied, in a letter of last September just published, censuring the court, lawyers, merchants and everybody who was connected with the sentence of the Anarchists. She quotes from Parsons' speech at the Haymarket in which he implored the men not to kill McCormick, as one hundred other capitalists would spring up in his stead. She holds that Judge Gary and Mr. Grinnell admitted this, but that the supreme judges say that Parsons told the people not to kill any one man, but to kill en masse.

She states her willingness to start out on a lecturing tour, but that her friends say she must be quiet and must not give the press a chance to print new lies, and that "for the sake of the man who is, of all living creatures, the dearest and best to me, I am holding my tongue."

The letter is signed "Nina Spies," and a postscript follows in which she states that "two of the jurors work for Henry W. King, the millionaire clothier. One or both of them have been known to have thirled for the blood of August Spies and others before being impaneled. King knows it, but will not permit the others to testify to it. King's daughter was engaged to Charles Bentley, who upbraided King for abetting legal murder, hence the match is off."

Guarding the Dead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Armed guards keep watch day and night over the vault in Waldheim cemetery, where the bodies of Spies, Parsons, Engel, Lingg and Fischer are now resting. They are in the employ of the defense committee, and the intention is to maintain a guard until a permanent burial place has been secured. Friends of the executed men are in favor of purchasing a few acres of land adjacent to the city and reserving it for this purpose.

From the character of the crowds that congregated in the old time haunts of the Anarchists, and from the tone of their conversation, anyone not thoroughly posted would be led to suppose that the entire brood of Anarchists had suddenly become extinct. The Sunday parade was a revelation. There were scores and hundreds of Anarchists in that parade who have not shown themselves upon the streets or in public places since the night of the Haymarket riot. There is every reason to believe that several of the old time groups have been reorganized.

Did Engel Leave Two Widows?

RACINE, Wis., Nov. 17.—Mrs. Margaret Engel, living in this city, asserts that she was the lawful wife of Engel, the Anarchist, who was hanged in Chicago last week. She says they were married in Germany, and came to Racine twelve years ago, where she alleges her husband deserted her, going to Chicago. She says she recognized the Anarchist as her husband by pictures and by the published descriptions.

The Report Denied.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—A woman in Milwaukee claims to be Engel's lawful wife, but our Mrs. Engel proves the falseness of the claimant's assertion, as she has lived here fifteen years, and the Milwaukee woman said she and Engel lived in Racine twelve years ago.

The Inquest of Louis Lingg.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—A sensation was caused at the inquest over Louis Lingg, in the coroner's office this morning, by the production of letters by three of the jurors. These had been written by the same man, and told the jurors to watch what certain men said, as there was a suspicion that all was not right about the suicide.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Buffalo Has a $150,000 Blaze—Arkansas Forests On Fire.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 17.—At 8 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the extensive brewing establishment of the Ziegele Brewing company on Washington street. The buildings occupied the block between Barton alley and Virginia street. The flames spread with great rapidity, and soon the malt houses, ice houses and the elevator were entirely destroyed. The loss on the buildings is estimated at $100,000. The total loss is at least $150,000, with $100,000 insurance.

Forest Fires in Arkansas.

HELENA, Ark., Nov. 17.—For the last two or three days Helena and the immediate vicinity have been surrounded by dense clouds of smoke. The cause of this is due to a dense forest fire that extends over a vast area, being in progress. It originated about ten or fifteen miles northwest of here, and has extended itself to such a degree as to threaten a large portion of the county. It has extended to within a half mile of Helena but no danger is apprehended in the city so far. It has done great damage by way of burning up cotton in fields and fences. Many farmers are out fighting the flames that sweep across the country in vast billows. The county of Monroe has been seriously devastated by the same cause.

Fire Losses.

Boston, Nov. 17.—A business block on Broadway, Chelsea, was partially burned last night, causing the following losses: W. H. Johnson, hay and grain, $2,000; L. K. Husted, laundry, $2,000; G. L. Flade, cigars, $32,000; G. P. Emery, on building, $4,000. Other small losses will aggregate $1,000 or more. Cause unknown.

Peppered With Bird Shot.

Buckhara, O., Nov. 17.—F. S. Monnett, a prominent young attorney of this city, was accidentally shot yesterday by his brother, D. B. Monnett, while hunting quail. Thirty-five shot lodged in the back of his head and shoulders. His physicians say a fatal result is not anticipated.

The Star of Bethlehem.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 17.—At noon a remarkable phenomenon was witnessed here of the Bright Star of Bethlehem twinkling in the sky near the sun. The star was visible until late in the afternoon.

A Little Child Cooked.

WINCHESTER, O., Nov. 17.—The three-year-old child of Robert Salisbury, near this city, fell into a tub of hot water early this morning, and before discovered was cooked. Death ensued instantly.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a terse and spicy manner.

Manufacturers of carriage mountings are meeting in New York to arrange a scale of prices.

Five colored laborers on the Nashville & Florence railroad were killed by a blast of powder Friday.

A small band of Apache marauders are raiding mining camps in Mexico, 150 miles south of El Paso, Tex.

Jury in New York decided that the system in vogue as E. W. Todd's "buckshot shop" was gambling, and he was fined $100. Lee Mosier was hanged at Wichita, Kan., Tuesday. When asked if he had anything to say, he answered: "No; only I don't like to die this way."

The treasurer of Allen county, Ohio, refused to allow his books to be examined. It is claimed there is rotteness there that ought to be exposed.

Tenants on several Irish estates have refused to pay rent until Mr. O'Brien is released. The lord mayor of Dublin has postponed his annual banquet in sympathy.

Stephen Bailey, an engineer in Berkeley county, S. C., killed his wife and threw her remains in the boiler. He was arrested, and tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat, but the knife was too dull.

Sheep breeders' association, meeting at Chicago, after refusing membership to Mrs. Ann Newton, of Pontiac, Ill., for the third time, because her sheep capture all the prizes, elected the following officers: President, S. R. Todd, Wakarusa, O.; vice-president, F. S. Butler, Ridgeway, O.; secretary, Mortimer Levering, Lafayette, Ind.

FROM FOREIGN CLIMES.

But Very Little Encouragement in the Crown Prince's Condition.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—In an interview with Dr. Morrell Mackenzie, in this city to-day, in reference to the disease of the Crown Prince Frederick William, the physician laid stress upon the fact that the new growth in the patient's throat had not extended since it was first noticed. It was, however, destroying the larynx and was extremely dangerous. Dr. Mackenzie said that the introduction of an artificial larynx would cause terrible distress to the patient.

Death of William McArthur.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Alderman Sir William McArthur, ex-mayor of London, and ex-member of parliament, died this morning in an underground railway carriage. It is thought that he choked to death, as the black fog that has prevailed in years hangs over the city to-day. The ex-mayor was a magnificent patron of the Wesleyan Methodist society.

Well Known Journalist Dismissed. LONDON, Nov. 17.—Mr. Bennett Burleigh, the well known journalist and war correspondent, who was arrested by mistake during last Sunday's riots, was dismissed to-day from custody. The police authorities apologized for his arrest.

The Inquest Illegal.

DUBLIN, Nov. 17.—The court of queen's bench has quashed the verdict of the Mitchellstown inquest, on the ground that the inquest was illegal, that the jury was irregularly empaneled, and that the coroner's conduct was illegal and partial.

Will Meddle no More.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—In answer to an appeal the court has discharged the order checking De Bousuade from interfering with his wife, Miss Cameron. De Bousuade has promised not to meddle with his wife's earnings.

Four Hundred Passengers Lost. LONDON, Nov. 17.—A dispatch from Hong Kong states that the steamship Wahyong has been burned in the Canton river. About four hundred passengers are supposed to be lost.

The Weather.

THE BEE HIVE.

During the whole of last week we advertised in extra large space, for the benefit of the people, the extremely low prices at which we are selling our goods.

We are convinced that the public appreciated the bargains we offered, for our stores were thronged and crowded during the entire week, and the people found that we had in stock everything exactly as advertised and all—rich or poor—received the same courteous treatment, and fair, honest dealing.

We shall, for the next few weeks, continue this great sacrifice sale, because our stock is too large. We have too many goods and we need money.

Then, again, we are daily receiving invoices of Christmas Goods, some right new Novelties in Bisque Figures, Fancy Plush Boxes, &c., &c. Now we must make room for these, and therefore this great sacrifice sale will be continued for a few weeks more. Come at once and look for yourselves.

We have made an especial big cut in prices of Cloaks and Jackets. Our $3.50 Jacket marked down to $2.15; our $5 Jacket to $3.75; Children's Cloaks from 50 cents up. Whoever needs anything in
